

CHRISTMAS WEEK

DECEMBER IS USHERED IN WITH THE STORE IN FULL HOLIDAY TRIM. EVERY INCH OF EXTRA SPACE "CHUCK" FULL OF TOYS, BOOKS, PICTURES, GAMES, DOLLS, DISHES, CELLULOID AND PLUSH SETS, ETC. EVERYTHING MOST WHICH THE HEART OF YOUNG OR OLD COULD COVET.

Unequaled Store. Unequaled Stock.

THE ENLARGED BOOK DEPARTMENT

OUR BOOK STOCK today is larger than ever before. Coupled with the extraordinary resources of the department are the most exceptional values. It is a common thing to hear us say: "Here is a book listed at $1.25 for 35c or 50c," as the case may be. How can those offers be made? you ask. Just in this way: When a publisher has only a limited number of an edition of some book left, or if the list of titles of a series be broken, he is generally willing to close out the remainder very cheap. We have a man in New York looking after just such opportunities, and he has been doing Yeoman's work lately. We propose to make you acquainted with some of it.

Children's Books.

Children's counter furnishes far greater attractions this year than ever before.

Everything in the picture book line at 3c, 5c, 7c, 10c, 12c, 15c and 20c.

Alice's Adventure in Wonderland, 20c
Good Time Stories, 25c
Little Folk's World, 25c
Hours in Story Land, 25c
Christmas Cheer, 25c
Home Stories, 25c
Youngster's Yarns, 30c
Chitty Chitty, 35c
101 Stories, 35c
Budget Stories, 35c
Bible Stories, 60c
Gospel Stories, 60c
Pansy's Stories of American History, 75c
Oliver Optic's Stories, 85c
The Brownies Around the World, $1.50

BOOKS FOR OLDER PEOPLE.

"Through the Wilds"

A story of the forests of New Hampshire by Captain Chas. A. Farrar.

The Henty Books

Titles: "In the Reign of Terror," "One of the Twenty-eight, or the Tale of Waterloo," "With Wolfe in Canada," "The Lion of St. Mark." Price 85c.

A Few Editions that are Very Popular This Year:

Trilby, Marcella, Manxman, Doreen, Perly Cross, Red Robe Prince of India, Ben Hur, Holmes' Memories, Fair God.

BOOKLETS, CALENDARS, CARDS.

These three features of the Christmas Trade are given abundant counter space in the south aisle. A dime or fifteen cents has wonderful purchasing power at this counter.

POETRY.

We are not going beyond the truth when we state that we never had in the Book Department the popular poets in so many handsome styles of bindings.

Anyone's particular fancy in this we regard we can easily satisfy.

GIFT BOOKS.

The Three Most Popular This Season Are:

The Goupil Gallery of Photogravures, Tennyson's Fairy Lillies, Gems from Scott.

SETTS: Prescott's "Conquest of Mexico," "Ferdinand and Isabella" and "Conquest of Peru." Macaulay's History of England.

Hugo's works, 6 volumes. Carlisle's French Revolution.

Fielding's works: "Tom Jones," "Warren," "10,000 a Year," "Lycall," "We Two and Donovan."

HAWTHORNE'S WORKS. SCOTT'S WORKS. COOPER'S WORKS. DICKENS' WORKS.

STEVENSON & COMPANY.

Dry Goods, Holiday Goods, Carpets and Millinery.

ART Embroidery

Fancy Goods.

Never in the history of our store has this department been so complete.

Stamped Doylies At 6c, 8c, 10c, 12c, 15c, 18c, 25c, 30c and 43c.

Stamped Trays At 25c, 35c, 50c and 60c.

Stamped Covers At 30c, 40c, 50c, 65c, 75c, 80c, 90c, $1, $1.65, $1.70 and $2.00.

Stamped Scarfs At 25c, 50c and 65c.

Plain Trays At 45c, 50c and 65c.

Plain Covers At 30c, 37c, 50c, 65c, 75c, 80c and up.

We have just received new Silks, Art Linen, Drop Tassels and Fringes. Our stock is almost entirely new.

Have you seen those Solid Silver Spoons? "After Dinner Coffee," at 37c and 50c each.

Try the Mignon Kid Glove with large pearl buttons, gusset fingers, in all shades; no shop worn goods, every pair warranted. These are very cheap at $1. Our price this week only 89c.

Gents' China Silk Handkerchiefs. Fine quality and good size, only 25c each.

Ladies' Embroidered Handkerchiefs. Beautiful patterns, only 12c each.

WE Have a DESIGN

ON YOU—IT IS TO

ATTRACT YOUR

ATTENTION

To THIS STORE as a place to make your Holiday Purchases. We sell DEY GOODS EXCLUSIVELY. Our departments are full of New Goods for the occasion. The whole story would fill a book, but can be easily and quickly read AT THE COUNTER.

The Mills, Flower, Adams Co.

GLOVES.

In this Department we certainly Excel. Customers once are customers always.

Carolina, 5-h. Prim Lamb, $1.00 pr

Royal, 5-h. Real Kid, $1.50.

Brighton, 4-h. Overseam, $1.50.

Monarch, 4 Clasp Derby, $2.00.

Francis, 4 Clasp Silk line, $2.25.

Agents for Centimiri Kid Gloves. Party Shirts in all Length.

See that you get them where the crowds get theirs.

HANDKERCHIEFS

There are few stores, even in the larger cities, who make as great a show of Handkerchiefs as we. Everybody buys Handkerchiefs at some time and everybody should buy them here.

No Use Trying to Talk Prices.

There's 100 styles at 5c each, with real Lace Handkerchiefs at $3.00 each for the line, and every price conceivable in between.

Great Line at 25c ea.

Nothing can be better than our goods, as no thing can be better than the best.

BOSTON BAGS.

These are new and very stylish. We think no one else is showing them. Prices, $1.50, $1.80, $2 ea.

Brand New Line Leather Hand Bags, Pocket Books and Purse.

No Room to quote prices. The LINE is CHOICE and prices moderate.

Prices are so low that everybody who buys sends somebody else.

LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S UMBRELLAS.

A large assortment just in for the Holiday sale, and the EXTREMELY LOW PRICES for choice goods is REALLY WONDERFUL. This is strong talk, but we've never deceived you! Fine handles, fine frames, fine cloths, from $1.50 Each to $5.00.

If it is something very nice, we have it.

APRONS.

The 5 O'clock Tea

Aprons are the ones most admired and bought at Christmas time; and why not—they are so dainty looking with their embroidery, lace and ribbon decorations, and the prices are so temptingly low.

Prices, 50c to $1.00 etc., and in the Regular Lines of White Aprons we save all kinds.

Our 25c leader is large enough, fine enough and cheap enough to suit anybody.

If you are a doubter, come and let us set you right.

FADS IN FANCY GOODS.

Just now one of the busiest places in our store is the Fancy Art Dept. See what we show in hand-made articles ready for use: Beautiful Stamped Linens, Tinted Covers, Silk Fringes, Linen Fringes, Down Pillows, Working Materials, etc., etc.

Great Display of Fine Fans for 50c each to $15 each.

THE

MILLS, FLOWER, ADAMS CO.

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES.

Another Delightful Entertainment Given by Mrs. Lakin.

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY.

Personal Items of Interest About Topeka People and Visitors in Town.

The third of the thimble parties given by Mesdames D. L. Lakin and L. S. Lauck, occurred on Wednesday afternoon. A perfect day, a hospitable greeting in the reception hall, the dainty appointments of this always attractive home and the presence of congenial guests, combined to make the afternoon one of the most delightful social events of the season.

White hands tried with exquisite bite of fancy work, while bright conversation absorbed the attention. Delicate refreshments completed the pleasant affair which was participated in by the following ladies:

Mesdames George Bates, George Yeale, Jr., Ashton, W. L. Gordon, T. B. Sweet, M. P. Hillyer, Walter Bates, Out, Valentine, George Stone, Robert Stone, George M. Noble, C. C. Baker, Tyler, L. B. McClintock, Alice Clugston, Chapman, Frank Holliday, J. B. Hayden, E. Wilder, P. G. Noel, Shellabarger, McCune, Christian, Forbes, Mayo, W. A. Coats, E. Bennett, W. H. Rober, Alex Davis, W. C. Garvey, Merwin, Foster, Bosworth, Pentfield, Wasson, Smyser, Reaves, Furman, Collins, Taylor, E. P. Baker, John Sargent, Kitchell, Dudley, La Tourette, Elliott, Smith, Will Morton, Blood Smith, John Sargent Jr., Hunt, George Wood, P. L. Bonbrake, Frank Bonbrake, A. P. Wilder, Strickler, Popovich, John Martin, Henry McAfee, J. B. McAfee, D. C. Nellis, Torrington, Evans, Bartholomew, John Morton, Frank Thompson, Furman Baker, Bradley, S. W. Stone, Garvey, A. L. Williams, Morton, Marburg, G. Collins, Bailey, H. E. Hodge, L. E. Bowman, Left, McFarren, G. W. Crane and sister, Edwin, J. R. Mulvane, Will Smith, J. K. Hudson, Misses Alfred and Williamson.

Forrest-McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received numerous presents. Mr. Ferris is a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Santa Fe, and both he and his wife have many friends in the city. Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. Putnam, Miss Addie Putnam, Herbert McMann, Miss Ida Godfrey, Miss Hattie Godfrey, Mr. Will Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. John Godfrey, Miss Bertie Maxwell, Miss Maud McMann, Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer, Mr. Paul Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMann.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 1225 Monroe street, Miss Nellie McMann and Mr. John R. Ferris were united in marriage.

The parlor was decorated in a profusion of palms. At 8:30 the bride and groom descended the stairs and stood in the bow window while Rev. J. B. Thomas pronounced the ceremony. The bride wore a cream China silk dress. The godet skirt was trimmed in ruffles arranged in points. The bodice had a yoke of pearl trimming and bertha of white silk lace with slippers and gloves to match. Eighteen bride's roses, to signify the number of years she had lived, formed her bouquet. Her hair and nails were arranged in her high coiffure. After congratulations were offered refreshments were served. The young couple received